Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Please explain the reasons for your response

I was a victim of domestic violence as a child. If it had been clearly illegal I might have been able to get someone to stop it. If someone had stopped it I might be a lot less screwed up today.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

I believe it is ethically unacceptable to hit children and I don't really see why there need to be 'advantages' in not doing so.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

None.

It seems likely that domestic violence might be more common for LGBTQ children (but I don't have the facts.)
