Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response

Children need to be disciplined for the good of society. As a teacher I am dealing with the daily affects of children who have been 'raised' by parents without boundaries and discipline. Bad behaviour in schools is a MAJOR issue. No school seems to expel pupils even when they verbally and physically abuse staff.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

None.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Children behaving as they wish without fear of any consequences - in the home, at school, in society.

Page 11: Financial implications

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have?

Significant increase in cost

Please explain the reasons for your response

Parents end up in jail. Tax payers pick up the bill for children going into foster care or homes. Children in care are more likely to become delinquents and end up in jail. They get out of jail, they reoffend. More cost to the taxpayers.

Q6. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Negative

Q7. Could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on any of these protected groups be minimised or avoided?

No

Q8. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having a disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impact?
