Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response

It is essential that Children's Rights are enshrined in law as international evidence shows that this approach leads to a gradual sea change in public attitude and collective effort to uphold the seriousness of rights as community responsibility.

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Future generations will grow up understanding that physical punishment is unacceptable in our progressive society and community will strive to better understand child development and provide appropriate and respectful safeguards for children's growth and development.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

none

Page 11: Financial implications

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have?

Significant reduction in cost

Please explain the reasons for your response

Evidence from other countries already implementing a ban on physical punishment shows that as public attitude shifts, costs decrease.

Q6. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

The bill would give children and young people in these groups the same protection from assault as adults.

Q7. Could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on any of these protected groups be minimised or avoided?

No Response
