Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Please explain the reasons for your response

The legislation which currently exists is blatant ageism which not only condones violence, but violence against individuals who cannot protect themselves in the same way as others. It is backward and barbaric and it's frankly difficult to believe it's still written in law.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

- Improved emotional health of children
- Empowerment of young people who will feel less inferior
- Demand for better parenting
- Better equality
- Obvious physical benefit to children

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

None
