Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Please explain the reasons for your response

Through discussion with our members we have realised that we can not speak for all parents on this issue, however, as an organisation we feel it important to publicly declare our support for the proposal. We recognise that there has been a slow shift in the accepted norms in our society, in regards to physical punishment, and believe that legislation would encourage a fuller, quicker shift.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response

Whilst we support the proposed legislation, it is vital that parents are educated on the robust body of evidence showing the long term negative impact of physical punishment to fully understand why the Bill is necessary. This information should be widely available in a variety of formats.

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Children would be protected from the long term negative impact of physical punishment.
Parents would be much clearer than at present on what is and is not reasonable or acceptable punishment.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?
