Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Please explain the reasons for your response

Children deserve the same rights to live a peaceful and content life as all other citizens so that they might progress and develop to their utmost potential without fear in all spheres of their life.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

To raise children in a peaceful environment without fear able to articulate their thoughts, opinions and feelings without fear so that they can cultivate healthy and meaningful relationships throughout their life journey.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

The grey areas that might arise from incidents such as parents or guardians 'hitting out' in highly emotional situations like a child running near the road etc.

Page 11: Financial implications

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have?

Significant reduction in cost

Please explain the reasons for your response

Overall if we start to cultivate and embrace a society that is based on tolerance, respect, dignity and understanding we will avoid many of the costs incurred through criminal and justice systems, prisons etc.
