Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

I feel that it's vitally important that the most vulnerable in our society are afforded the protection given to adults.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

The main advantage would be that many more children would be afforded the right to a decent childhood free from the fear of physical assault.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

The only disadvantage I can see is ensuring that structures are in place to monitor potential or actual physical punishment of children.

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have?

Some increase in cost

Please explain the reasons for your response

Structures need to be put in place involving collaboration between education, social services, health services and the police. This will incur some cost but it's a cost that must be met.

Q6. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Positive

Please explain the reasons for your response

This bill offers and enhanced level of protection to each of these groups.

Q7. Could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on any of these protected groups be minimised or avoided?

I can see no negative impact.

Q8. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably i.e. without having a disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impact?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response:

I see no reason for this having an impact as the social care structures are already in place.
