Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Fully Supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response

Any physical punishment of children is assault. The difference in size and strength between an adult and most children makes it worse. Added to that is the power imbalance.

Q2. Could the aims of the proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response

Would we ask if assaulting adults be better delivered other than by the law?

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Massive reduction in physical assault of children and punishment of those who break the law.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of giving children equal protection from assault by prohibiting all physical punishment of children?

Would children report assault? Would they be believed?
It might increase other forms of harmful punishment.

Page 11: Financial implications

Q5. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response

I don't know enough to have an opinion. But cost should not be a factor in this decision.

Q6. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on the following protected groups (under the Equality Act 2010): race, disability, sex, gender re-assignment, age, religion and belief, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity?

Please explain the reasons for your response

Again I do not know. Apart from improvement to rights of children.

Q7. Could any negative impact of the proposed Bill on any of these protected groups be minimised or avoided?

I don't know.
